COMPILER'S PREFACE

THE plan of this Concordance to the WRITINGS OF MARY BAKER EDDY, other than SCIENCE AND HEALTH, follows in every detail the plan of the Concordance to SCIENCE AND HEALTH, which was compiled in 1902 under the personal direction and supervision of MRS. EDDY. It therefore (with the exceptions noted below) contains every noun, verb, adjective, and adverb in the above-mentioned books, together with such pronouns, prepositions, and conjunctions as were deemed of sufficient importance to be introduced.

The books are indexed in the order in which they stand in the list of abbreviations on page vi.

The words are indexed in each book by page and line numbers. The titles of the poems in "Poems," and the titles of the chapters in the other books are not numbered; but all other lines including chapter sub-titles, headings and Scriptural quotations are numbered.

The numbers indicating page and line refer to the word under consideration and not necessarily to the beginning of the line quoted. The letters preceding some of the numbers are abbreviations of the titles of the books indexed, and indicate the books in which these references are to be found. Vacant spaces below the abbreviations indicate that the references are from the same book until a different abbreviation appears.

A special feature of the work is to be found in the fact that every noun of frequent occurrence is provided with sub-titles. These sub-titles are arranged in alphabetical order, under their respective nouns, and consist of adjectives or other qualifying words or phrases, preserving in every case the exact phraseology of the books from which they are taken. By this method all that is said on any given subject will be found grouped in one place.

For example: Man is often referred to as the "image and likeness" of God. More than fifty references to this subject will be found in the sub-title "and likeness" under the principal title "image." The sub-titles also enable those who are familiar with the text to look up passages by means of such words as God, Life, Truth, Love, Mind, matter, error, etc., without searching through several hundred references.

A few adjectives also, such as human, material, mortal, spiritual, etc., are furnished with sub-titles.

Certain words occurring in some places as nouns, are used in other places as verbs or adjectives. For example: the word "healing" is used as a noun, an adjective, and a participle. All such words appearing more than fifty times are classified and grouped under their respective parts of speech. If used less than fifty times in all, these words are not so separated.

The capitalization used in the sixteen books indexed presented many puzzling problems. Where a word referred to Deity when capitalized, and to humanity when not capitalized, it has been indexed under both headings, as for example: Life, life; Truth, truth; Love, love. The two headings have also been retained where the capitalization gave the word a different signification, as in such cases as Master, master; Physician, physician, where the capital referred to Christ Jesus. But where the word began a sentence, or was capitalized simply for emphasis, as in the headings in the Manual, or in the chapter sub-titles in the other books, and the capital did not change the meaning, the word has been indexed under the lower case heading only. For example: "Editor" and "editor" both appear under "editor." In some cases dual headings have been employed, as for example: "Masonic and masonic"; "Massachusetts and Mass."

All references to the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science are arranged as sub-titles under the title "Eddy." Mrs. EDDY's signatures to various documents and communications will be found under "Eddy-signatures." A few references concerning Mrs. EDDY's childhood and the members of her family are indexed under "Baker" and "Glover."

For all Chapter Sub-titles, Headings, and Titles of the Poems in their entirety see Appendix "A." For individual words in same, consult the main body of the book.

Every Scriptural quotation is indexed under every important word in it, in the same manner as other words, and is followed by the book, chapter, and verse where it may be found in the BIBLE. A separate index of all the books, chapters, and verses of the BIBLE from which passages in quotation marks have been taken for use in the WRITINGS OF MARY BAKER EDDY other than SCIENCE AND HEALTH will be found in Appendix "B."

All passages quoted by Mrs. EDDY from other authors, and also reports of church officials, letters, editorials, and other newspaper articles, etc., not written by Mrs. EDDY, are indexed in the usual way; but all such references may be identified by the * which precedes the lines taken from these sources. All signatures to documents not written by Mrs. EDDY will be found under the title "signatures."

The list of "Church Officers" on page 21, and also the "Application Forms," "Orders of Services," and "Deeds of Trusts" in the Appendix to the Church Manual, and the article entitled "Concord, N.H., to Mrs. Eddy and Mrs. Eddy's Reply" are indexed under their headings only. In indexing the Manual, the 1914 edition was used, and attention is called to the fact that the first three lines on page 85, are to be found at the bottom of page 84 in earlier editions. To find the name of any "Article" in the Manual consult the title "Church Manual." In these references the number of the line corresponds with the beginning of the line quoted. The names of the "Sections" will be found under the titles "Section I," "Sect. II," "Sect. III," etc.

Proper names are indexed under the surnames.

All dates containing years are indexed under "dates," and arranged chronologically; all dates containing months, but not years, are arranged chronologically under "months."

All values given in dollars and cents are indexed under "values."

All numbers consisting of one word, as "one, two, twenty, thirty, etc.," are indexed in their alphabetical places: all numbers consisting of more than one word, as "two thousand, one million, etc.," are indexed under "numbers."

Hours of the day are indicated by sub-titles under the title "time."

For the passages read from the BIBLE and SCIENCE AND HEALTH at the dedication of the extension to The Mother Church, consult "Lesson Sermon on Dedication Sunday."

Page numbers referring to SCIENCE AND HEALTH are indexed as sub-titles under "SCIENCE AND HEALTH."

All words used in the description of the organ in the original Mother Church are indexed as sub-titles under the word "organ."

Titles of more than one word, as "Falmouth and Norway Streets" are indexed in the place indicated by the first important word in the title. The above title is therefore to be found in the "F's."

The complete Concordance to all the writings of our beloved Leader and Teacher, published in book form, is embodied in the Concordance to SCIENCE AND HEALTH WITH KEY TO THE SCRIPTURES and the present volume.
